The University of Montana

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone national parks.

Four wilderness areas are located near Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are within minutes of the University, and several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course near the campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and celebrated its Centennial in 1993-94, as it was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September 1895 with 50 students enrolled the first day. Located on 207 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from 50 students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of over 11,000 and approximately 450 full-time faculty positions.

Throughout its history, The University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers a general associate of arts degree and bachelor's degrees in 50 fields. It offers master's degrees in 45 programs and doctoral degrees in nine.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The college also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields such as ethnic studies and liberal studies.

The University also has schools of business administration, fine arts, journalism, education, forestry, law, and pharmacy and allied health sciences.

The University aims to provide its students a humane and productive learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

George Dennison became the 16th president of The University of Montana on August 15, 1990.

Before coming to UM, Dennison was provost and vice president for academic affairs at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, a post he held since 1987.

He is a former resident of Kalispell and a UM alumnus. A history professor, he earned two degrees in that field at Montana: a master's in 1963 and a bachelor's with highest honors in 1962. In 1967, he completed a doctorate in history at the University of Washington.

Before joining Western Michigan's administration, he held a number of positions at Colorado State University between 1969 and 1987. They include history professor, admissions and records director, associate academic vice president, graduate school associate dean and associate dean of the college of the arts, humanities and social sciences.

Dennison and his wife, Jane, also from Kalispell, have two children.

WAYNE HOGAN
Athletic Director

Wayne Hogan was named Montana's new Athletic Director on October 12, 1995, and he began his post November 1. He replaces Bill Moos, who left UM in June to serve as the athletic director at the University of Oregon.

Hogan comes to Montana from Florida State University, where he served in numerous positions. He was the sports information director from 1982-93, and he served as the associate athletic director from 1993-94 before acting as the interim athletic director from 1994-95.

Prior to his career at Florida State, Hogan was the assistant sports information and promotions director at the University of New Mexico from 1980-82. Before that he was the director of broadcasting and public relations for the Houston Astros and the Los Angeles Dodgers. Hogan also served stints as the Seminole radio network coordinator and producer (1976-79), Tallahassee Democrat sports writer (1974-76), and Florida Flambeau sports editor (1975-76).

Hogan was selected from a field of 107 applicants. He brings with him strong leadership skills, a commitment to the academic mission of the University, a sensitivity to the needs of the student-athlete, vision, integrity and stature, fund-raising skills, administrative acumen, and exceptional communication skills.

Wayne received his bachelor's degree in communications from Florida State in 1979. He and his wife, Dawn, have three children: Lindsay (14), Kelly (12), J.P. (4).

"I think we are very fortunate to have a person of Wayne's stature accept the position of athletic director," said UM President George Dennison. "He will be able to hit the ground running and take us where we need to go. Wayne's credentials are outstanding, and his experience includes 17 years in leadership positions. I am delighted he has agreed to join The University of Montana."

Bill Schwanke is in his third year as assistant athletic director at UM. His duties include the identification and solicitation of potential corporate sponsors; evaluation and development of radio-television rights contracts; reorganization of the Grizzly letter winners club, and chairing both the Grizzly Sports Hall of Fame Committee and UM's annual men's basketball tournament committee.

He was the assistant director of the Grizzly Athletic Association at UM from 1988-91 and served as Montana's sports information director from 1967-69. He was the sports editor at The Missoulian from 1969-71.

"Grizzly Bill" was the "voice" of Montana football and men's basketball for 20 years, before retiring from those duties in 1993. He was the Montana Sportscaster of the Year six times.

Schwanke is a 1967 graduate of Montana, earning a B.A. degree in Journalism. He received Montana's Alumni Award on Centennial Charter Day - Feb. 18, 1993.

Bill and his wife, Lynn, have four children: Amber, Myka, Corbin, and Genna.

GARY HUGHES
*Manager, Athletic
Services
Interim Associate A.D.*

Gary Hughes is currently serving as the Interim Associate Athletic Director in the absence of Kathy Noble, who recently accepted a new position with the Big Sky Conference.

The veteran of Montana's athletic department, Gary is in his 30th year at UM. He was named Athletic Ticket Manager in 1966 and was appointed Manager of Athletics Facilities and Revenue in 1978.

Hughes manages all scheduling in Adams Field House, Washington-Grizzly Stadium, Dornblaser Track & Field, and the new soccer field. In addition, he oversees the TIC-IT-E-Z ticketing system, all athletic revenue, concessions operations, event staffing and various other duties.

Gary is a native of Ronan and graduated in accounting from Missoula Business College in 1962. He gained experience in accounting and auditing before assuming his responsibilities at Montana.

Gary and his wife, Judy, have six children: Christian Ann, Dustin, Lance, Christopher, Sara and Cary.

AL KEMPFERT
*Director,
Athletic Development*

JAMES LOPACH
Faculty Athletic Representative

Al Kempfert is in his 18th year as Executive Director of the Grizzly Athletic Association, formerly known as the Century Club.

In 1977 Century Club raised approximately $70,000 for intercollegiate athletics. Last year the G.A.A. generated over $750,000 in private support with emphasis primarily on athletic scholarships; however, the G.A.A. assists in all phases of athletic department operations.

Kempfert came to UM from California Lutheran University, where he had served as the Director of Alumni/Parent Relations from 1971-77. He served in the U.S. Army from 1968-71 and in Vietnam from 1969-70, receiving many commendations. He is an alumnus of CLU, where he was a three-sport letterman and the Outstanding Senior Athlete in 1967.

Al has three children: Kim, Matthew, and David. Matt was the starting center for the Grizzly basketball team last year, and David is a starting center for the Grizzly football team.

James Lopach was named Montana's new Faculty Athletic Representative in September. He replaces Bob Lindsay, who passed away on Sept. 17.

Dr. Lopach has been a faculty member in the UM political science department since 1973. He recently served as UM's associate provost, and he also served as acting director of the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Center.

Furthermore, Lopach was the associate dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and special assistant to the president for the semester conversion project.

Lopach received his degree in philosophy and English from Carroll College in 1964. He has two Master's degrees from Notre Dame: one in American Studies and one in English Education. He received his Ph.D. from Notre Dame in American Government & Public Law in 1973.

A native of Great Falls, Jim has two children: Christine and Paul, who is a second-year law student at UM.

Athletic Staff

Linda McCarthy is in her seventh year as the assistant sports information director at UM. Her primary sports are women's basketball, women's volleyball, and women's soccer, plus men's and women's cross country and track & field.

McCarthy is a 1991 graduate of The University of Montana, receiving her B.A. degree in interpersonal communication with an emphasis in Journalism. During her six years as the assistant SID, she has served as the Media Coordinator for several Big Sky Conference tournaments and for the 1993 NCAA Women's Basketball West Regional Championship.

McCarthy is a member of the Mountain West Games Committee, which was responsible for hosting the 1993 USA Track & Field National Cross Country Championships. She was selected to work the 1994 USA T&F National Junior Championships and the 1995 USA Mobil Championships.

Linda is a certified ASA softball umpire for the Missoula Softball Association. She also serves on the CoSIDA Allied Organizations committee.

LINDA MCCARTHY

MARIE HIBBARD
Coordinator of Athletic Academic
Services

Marie Hibbard was named The University of Montana's first-ever coordinator of athletic academic services in July 1992. She oversees UM student-athletes, in the areas of weekly tracking of academic progress, advising of course curriculum, tutoring, referral to campus support services, overseeing completion of General Education Requirements, and upholding NCAA compliance regulations.

Prior to coming to UM, Hibbard was a faculty member at Washington State, serving as an academic counselor. She earned a B.A. degree in Psychology at the University of Kansas in 1988, graduating with honors.

Hibbard was a four-year letter winner in tennis at Kansas and was the recipient of the Outstanding Women's Student-Athlete Award at KU in 1986, 1987 and 1988. Hibbard was a two-time Academic All-American, in 1987 and 1988, and was awarded an NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship in 1988. She earned a Master's degree in social psychology from Kansas in 1990, maintaining a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

Marie also serves as the assistant women's tennis coach. She is married to Mark Porter.

Dennis Murphy is in his 14th year as head athletic trainer at UM. He graduated from Montana in 1975 with a B.S. degree in health and physical education with a specialization in Athletic Training and Adaptive Physical Education.

In June 1975 he was certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association. In August 1978 he was named assistant athletic trainer and lecturer at the Department of Athletics at the University of Arizona. In September 1980 he accepted the position of visiting assistant professor at UM.

Murphy, who has been a certified trainer for 19 years, has taught numerous training-related classes, has been a guest speaker at several sports' clinics and has written articles for training publications.

STEVE HACKNEY
Equipment
Manager

Steve Hackney is in his 15th season as the Grizzly equipment manager. He oversees all facets of the athletic equipment room operation and is involved in the upkeep of Dahlberg Arena, Washington-Grizzly Stadium, Dornblaser Track & Field and the new UM soccer field, as well as all practice facilities.

Steve is a native of Hamilton and graduated from The University of Montana in 1972. He received his B.S. degree in health and physical education, with an emphasis in Athletic Training and Physical Therapy. Hackney received his Master's degree in health and physical education in 1974 from Indiana State.

He served three years in the Navy from 1962-65 and was a Spanish linguist.

Steve and his wife, Larae, have a son Tyler, 13, and a daughter, Meghan, 10.

Chuck Maes joined the Grizzly athletic department in June of 1988. As assistant to the athletic director, he oversees all business affairs of The University of Montana athletic department.

He is a 1985 graduate of UM with a B.A. degree in Business Administration, graduating with degrees in accounting and management. He began his career at UM as an accountant in the Controller's office immediately following graduation from his alma mater.

Maes graduated from Anaconda High School in 1978, where he was a track letterman as a prep.

Chuck and his wife, Brenda, have a two-year-old daughter, Lauren.

Head Coach

ROBIN SELVIG
408-100, 17 Years

The all-time winningest coach in Montana history. Robin Selvig has developed the Lady Griz basketball program into one of the most successful in the nation. Entering his 18th year at the helm of the program, he is the fifth winningest active coach in Division I women's basketball, winning 80 percent of all the games he has coached at The University of Montana.

Selvig was appointed the fourth head coach of the Lady Griz program in 1978, and since then he has brought national prominence to UM. His record speaks for itself.

Robin has led his teams to 13 postseason tournaments, including 10 NCAA Championship appearances. Montana advanced to the West Regional in 1984, and has advanced to the second round seven times. He has coached his teams to 15 consecutive 20-win seasons, dating back to 1980-81.

Selvig's teams have dominated the Big Sky Conference since its inception in 1982. Montana's record is 176-14 against conference foes during the regular season and 23-3 in league tournaments. He has won 92 percent (199-17) of his games against Big Sky opponents. Robin and his teams have gone undefeated in conference action five times, including three consecutive seasons in which Montana went 16-0. He has guided his teams to 11 regular-season titles and 10 tournament titles in 13 years. No other coach in the Big Sky Conference has come close to that success.

Selvig's talent and work ethic have earned him many awards. Robin is an 11-time Big Sky/Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year (1983, 84, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 94, 95) and an eight-time NCAA District 7 Coach of the Year (1984, 85, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 94). He was also one of three finalists for the 1991 NCAA Division I National Coach of the Year.

Selvig's trademark is defense. Last year Montana led the nation in scoring defense, holding opponents to 54.2 points per game. In 1992-93 Montana set a new NCAA Division I record in field-goal percentage defense (.317).

Selvig's success on the court has carried over into the bleachers. Montana has been consistently ranked among the top 10 programs in the nation in attendance for the past five years. Last year Montana was ranked 10th in the nation in attendance, averaging a school record 5,235 fans per home game. When Selvig began coaching at UM in 1978, Montana averaged just over 200 fans per home game.

Robin has served on several NCAA committees and is a long-time member of the Women's Basketball Coaches' Association. He also votes on the Associated Press Poll. Extending himself beyond UM Athletics, Selvig was the Director of the Montana Special Olympics in 1991 and 1992, and he has been a spokesperson for Missoula Youth Homes.

A native of Outlook, Mont., Selvig came to UM in 1970. He played his first season on the freshmen team, then earned three varsity letters under Jud Heathcote. He was a 1974 Big Sky all-conference guard as a senior, leading the Grizzlies to a 19-8 record that season. The following year Selvig coached the UM freshmen team, along with fellow teammate Kevin Rocheleau.

Selvig was the recipient of the 1974 John Eaheart Award, given annually to Montana's outstanding defensive player. That same year he received Montana's top athletic award, the Grizzly Cup, and he was inducted into the Grizzly Basketball Hall of Fame in 1983.

He received his bachelor's degree in health & physical education in 1974. After graduation, he returned to northeastern Montana to coach girls' basketball at Plentywood High School. During his stint there from 1975 to 1978, he compiled a record of 38-24.

Robin comes from a family of eight children. His brother, Doug, was a four-year letterman for the Grizzly hoop team from 1981-84, and he currently coaches at Glendive High School. Robin's sister, Sandy (Sullivan) was a member of the Lady Griz basketball team from 1978-81.

Selvig is married to the former Janie Hagan, who is originally from Redstone, Mont., and they have two sons. Jeff, 14, is a freshman at Hellgate High School, and Dan, 11, attends Rattlesnake Junior High.

Assistant Coaches

ANNETTE ROCHELEAU
Assistant Coach

Annette Rocheleau has been Robin Selvig's assistant coach for 14 years, and she is entering her 15th season as Selvig's number-one assistant. She has helped bring the Lady Griz program into national prominence. Her primary responsibilities are game strategy, conditioning, scouting, and travel arrangements.

Rocheleau coached the Lady Griz junior varsity team in her first two seasons as a UM assistant coach from 1981-83. She was appointed Montana's first full-time assistant women's basketball coach in September of 1983. Since then Montana has won 306 games.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Whitaker-Rocheleau was Montana's starting point guard from 1979-81. She was the team captain during both of those seasons, and she was selected UM's Most Inspirational Player as a senior. Rocheleau is currently 19th on Montana's all-time assist list with 132 career assists in only two years.

Annette transferred to Montana from Wenatchee Valley Junior College and walked on the Lady Griz team. She and fellow teammate Jill Greenfield led Wenatchee Valley J.C. to two state junior college championship titles, and she was team captain there as a sophomore.

Rocheleau is a 1977 graduate of Cashmere High School in Cashmere, Wash., where she was a four-year letter winner in both basketball and tennis from 1974 to 1977. She received her bachelor's degree from UM in health & physical education in 1982.

Rocheleau served as the assistant golf coach at The University of Montana from 1992-94.

Annette is a member of the Converse Coach of the Year committee. She also served as the assistant director of the Montana Special Olympics in both 1990 and 1991.

She is married to Kevin Rocheleau, a former Grizzly basketball player who played with Robin Selvig. They have one daughter, Trae, who will be two years old on April 18.

SHANNON CATE SCHWEYEN
Assistant Coach

Shannon Cate is in her third season as a full-time assistant coach under mentor Robin Selvig. She joined the UM coaching staff as a student assistant in 1992 and was appointed to a full-time position in July 1993.

Her primary coaching responsibility is recruiting, but she also assists with conditioning, game strategy, and scouting.

Cate was the Big Sky's first and only national Kodak All-American after leading the Lady Griz to a 103-18 overall record from 1988-92. She was a three-time District 7 All-American, a two-time Big Sky MVP, a three-time Big Sky tournament MVP, and a three-time Lady Griz MVP. She was also a two-time Big Sky all-academic selection.

Probably the Big Sky's most prolific player, Cate left the court as the Big Sky's all-time leading scorer among both men and women. She still owns 14 school records and nine Big Sky Conference records and averaged 18.7 points, 7.6 rebounds and 3.6 assists per game over the course of four years. She was consistently ranked among the top Division I players in the country in scoring, field-goal percentage and free-throw percentage.

Cate was a three-time state tournament MVP for her Billings Central prep team. A native of Billings, she was also the Montana USA Today Player of the Year in 1988.

Cate spent a short period of time playing basketball for a Spanish national team, but returned to the states because of a shoulder injury. She dislocated her shoulder seven times during her senior season, then had a second surgery in April of 1992.

Shannon received her B.A. degree in Business Administration in May of 1993. Last August she married Brian Schweyen, a former Big Sky all-conference decathlete from Montana State.

TRISH DUCE
Assistant Coach

Trish (Olson) Duce begins her second season as an assistant coach under Selvig. She is primarily responsible for film exchange, computer support and administration.

Duce had a successful career at Montana, despite being plagued by broken bones in her right foot. She came to UM from Missoula's Big Sky High School in 1989 and played in 28 games as a true freshman. She started in 29 games as a sophomore and was a Big Sky Conference all-tournament selection after leading the Lady Griz to a 77-49 victory over Montana State in the championship game.

In 1991-92, Trish broke a bone in her foot and was granted a medical redshirt season after competing in only three games. The following season she missed nine games due to another broken bone in her foot; however, she was named to the Western States Showdown all-tournament team after tallying a school-record eight blocks against Western Carolina, a record that still remains. As a fifth-year senior in 1993-94, Olson started 24 games and finished her career as Montana's 11th all-time leading blocker with 89 blocks.

Trish completed her B.S. degree in mathematics in May of 1993 and will receive her Master's degree in computer science in December of 1995. She was a four-time Big Sky all-academic selection during her career.

She married Kirk Duce, a former Grizzly football kicker, on July 30, 1994.

Lady Griz Basketball....Building on Tradition & Success

Sherri Brooks

Tradition...a commonplace theme surrounding the Lady Griz basketball program. Head coach Robin Selvig and company have posted 15 consecutive 20-win seasons, dating back to 1980-81. The success he has accomplished at Montana cannot be matched.

In his 18th season at UM, Selvig feels good about what his teams have accomplished, and he believes confidence is a key factor in Montana's success.

"We certainly have tradition and success here," he said, "and I think the confidence of our players has contributed to that success. The accomplishments from years past carries over to the next year."

Despite the success the Lady Griz had in 1994-95, there are still a lot of questions to answer for the upcoming season. Montana's starting inside line-up is gone. Jodi Hinrichs, Kristy Langton-Schlimgen and Lora Morast have graduated and gone on to become teachers and coaches in various Montana high schools. Selvig's biggest dilemma is replacing that inside line.

One thing is certain: Montana will be strong in the backcourt. The Lady Griz return Big Sky all-conference guards Sherri Brooks and Skyla Sisco, and senior Carla Beattie returns after redshirting last year.

"We have good experience at the guard position, and our guards have a lot of playing time among them," Selvig said. "Our backcourt is definitely where our strength lies."

Another undeniable fact is that the Lady Griz will stand strong on defense. Montana led the nation in scoring defense last year, allowing opponents only 54.2 points per game.

GUARDS: Senior Sherri Brooks has a string of 63 consecutive starts to her credit. She has twice been Montana's Best Defensive Player, and last year she was ranked 26th in the country in steals. She will be looking to become the all-time steal leader at UM this year. Sophomore Skyla Sisco became the first freshman to earn Big Sky all-conference first team honors in 1994-95. She was also the league's first Outstanding Sixth Player. On top of that, she participated in the U.S. Olympic Festival last summer, competing against some of the best players in the nation. Carla Beattie returns for her senior year after redshirting last year and has 91 games of experience to her credit. Junior Greta Koss started all 33 games last year, most of them at the two guard position. Her versatility allows her to play either guard or forward. Sophomore Catie McElmurry saw time in 26 games as a true freshman and gives UM an excellent outside shooting touch. Freshman Jill Rasmussen is coming off a redshirt season and is shooting the ball extremely well. She could play either guard position. Two newcomers join the Montana guard corps. Megan Harrington and Meggan Thompson give the Lady Griz energy and depth.

FORWARDS: With this year's depth at the guard position, Greta Koss will play the forward position this year. Senior Malia Kipp, who started 11 games last season, can play either the four or the five position. Both Koss and Kipp will provide experience and leadership. Sophomore Allison Turner saw time in 25 games last year as a true freshman, and Selvig expects her to step up and take on more responsibility this year. Sophomore Dawn Sackman is in her third year of the program, and her strength and rebounding will make her a contributor at the three position. Montana has two new forwards this year. Krista Redpath, a native of Great Falls, has good touch under the basket and runs the floor well. Linda Weyler, who hails from Billings, is very strong and has good rebounding abilities.

CENTERS: Montana has three athletes who can play the five position. Sophomore Angella Bieber saw significant time as a true freshman last year, and Selvig believes she'll become a force in the post. Junior April Sather is a two-sport standout with outstanding work ethic. She can play either the four or five position. Senior Malia Kipp is another athlete who can play either the four or the five.

Montana is a very young team this season, as only five players are upperclassmen. That could prove to be challenging for Selvig and his staff.

"Despite having three seniors this year, we are very young in terms of playing time," he said. "We have a lot of unproven players and a lot of questions to answer. We have a lot of talented players, but we need our younger players to step forward and assume bigger roles this year."

If Selvig's younger players step up and if the Lady Griz stay healthy, Montana will vie for another Big Sky Conference title. As always, Montana would like to return to the NCAA Championship.

"I think we have the chance to be a very, very good team this year," he said, "and we would certainly like to return to the NAAs. Once you've been there, as nearly all of our players have, you are motivated to get back. It's very exciting to compete with the best teams in the nation."

The Lady Griz will play a tough pre-season schedule in order to prepare for Big Sky Conference action. Western Kentucky, Portland and Oregon State all advanced to the NCAA Championship last year. Utah beat the Lady Griz by 26 points last year, and Montana would like to return the favor. UNLV, a team Montana met in the 1993 NCAA tournament, will be in Missoula for the Western States Showdown.

"We've got a schedule that is difficult enough to prepare us for the Big Sky season," Selvig said, "and we certainly have some tough games."

Montana was picked to win the league title in the Big Sky preseason poll. The Lady Griz will be looking for their 11th title in 14 years, but Montana must get past Boise State, Weber State, Eastern Washington and Montana State.

One thing that won't be difficult for the Lady Griz is living up to its reputation of being "Missoula's Unique Attraction." Last year Montana averaged another school-record 5,235 fans per home game, and Selvig sees that tradition continuing.

"I believe our attendance will continue to grow, especially if we're successful," he said. "There is a lot of excitement about women's basketball right now, and this is definitely going to be an exciting team to watch. We're looking forward to a great season."

CARLA BEATTIE
5-7 SENIOR GUARD
PHILIPSBURG, MONTANA

Carla Beattie is in her fifth and final season as a Lady Griz after redshirting last year. She has established herself as one of Montana's top outside shooters, and her return to the court will give Montana a welcome boost. She is a leader on the court and a leader in the classroom, earning Big Sky all-academic honors three times in her career.

Beattie holds the school record for three-point field-goal attempts in a single game (9) and a single season (88). She is second on Montana's free-throw percentage career list (.813) and fifth on the three-point field-goal career list (.360).

1994-95: Beattie ruptured her Achilles' tendon in the third game of the season, a game in which Montana nearly upset 12th-ranked Vanderbilt. She averaged nine points and 3.7 rebounds per game in three games before receiving a medical redshirt season.

1993-94: Beattie played in all 30 games as a junior, averaging 7.7 points and two assists per game. She led Montana in free-throw percentage (.833) and made more three pointers (31) than any other player.

1992-93: Beattie led Montana in free-throw percentage (.845) as a sophomore and averaged 7.6 points per game. She was 30-of-88 from the three-point line for a .327 shooting percentage. Beattie played in all of Montana's 28 games, averaging 16.8 minutes per game.

1991-92: Beattie received votes for Big Sky Freshman of the Year, averaging 5.3 points in all 30 games. She was Dick Vitale's ninth-best recruit in the nation in 1991.

High School: Carla came out of Granite High School as the highest-scoring girls' basketball player in the state of Montana with 2,508 career points. She was a three-time team MVP and averaged 33.9 points, 6.2 rebounds and 5.9 assists per game for GHS, which posted a 23-3 record in 1990. A three-time all-state and four-time all-conference player, Beattie once scored 50 points in a prep game. She also competed in volleyball and track & field.

Selvig says: "It's great to have Carla back. She is a great three-point shooter, and she has a lot of experience. She'll give us great leadership. She's an awfully good player, and hopefully she'll stay healthy all year."

The daughter of Jim and Eileen Beattie, Carla has a twin sister named Crista. Her brothers, Ken and Steve, both played basketball for Montana Tech. Her brother, Ken, is married to Kelly Pilcher, and they're expecting their first child.

SHERRI BROOKS
5-9 SENIOR GUARD
LIVINGSTON, MONTANA

One of Montana's most prolific defenders, Sherri Brooks is also one of the best guards Selvig has had in his program. Brooks will continue to provide leadership and solid backcourt play throughout her senior season.

She enters this season third on the all-time steal list (204) and needs 98 more to break Cheri Bratt's leading mark. She is also among UM's best in scoring, assists and blocks.

1994-95: Brooks was Montana's leading scorer last year, averaging 12.6 points per game, and scored in double figures 26 times. She led UM in assists (4.0 apg) and steals (3.5 spg) and started all 33 games at the point guard. She was ranked 26th in the nation in steals and broke Montana's 14-year-old record for steals in a single season. She also broke the single game mark with 10 steals vs. Utah. Brooks was a Big Sky all-conference, all-academic and athlete of the week award winner. She was the MVP of the Western States Showdown and earned all-tournament honors in Texas. Sherri was named UM's Outstanding Defensive Player for the second consecutive season.

1993-94: Brooks had an outstanding sophomore season, averaging 7.4 points and 3.6 rebounds as the starting two guard. She started all 30 games, averaging 22 minutes per game. She was Montana's Outstanding Defensive Player and was a Big Sky all-academic selection.

1992-93: Brooks had a fine freshman season, averaging 5.9 points and four rebounds per game in 26 games. She was also a Big Sky all-academic selection.

1991-92: Brooks redshirted her first season at UM.

High School: At Park County High School in Livingston, Brooks was a two-time team MVP and a three-time all-state and all-conference selection. She led the Rangers to a second-place finish at the state “A” tournament three years in-a-row. She was also a standout in volleyball, tennis and track & field. Brooks led her volleyball team and her track team to two state titles. She was the 1990 Gatorade Player of the Year for the state of Montana.

Selvig says: "Sherri is a complete player, who is a great, great defender. She is an outstanding offensive player, who can shoot and create. She has really come into her own as a great basketball player."

Sherri's guardians are Bob and Helen Wilson of Livingston. Last summer she married Faron McWilliams.

MALIA KIPP
6-1 SENIOR FORWARD-CENTER
BROWNING, MONTANA

Malia Kipp is the only upperclassman on the team who has not redshirted. She has been a strong post player for the Lady Griz and will see time at both the center and forward positions. She enters her senior season tied with Sherri Brooks for 15th place on the all-time block list with 49.

1994-95: Kipp saw time in all 33 games and started 11 in the absence of Lora Morast, who broke her neck early in the season. Malia averaged 3.4 points and 3.3 rebounds and led Montana in free-throw percentage (.767).

1993-94: Kipp was activated from what was supposed to be a redshirt season when center Jill Frohlich tore her ACL in an exhibition game, and center Trish Olson missed five of the first six games with back spasms. Kipp saw time in 26 games as a sophomore, averaging 14 minutes per game. She and Hinrichs led Montana in blocks with 21 each, plus Kipp averaged three points and 2.7 rebounds per game.

1992-93: Selvig pulled Kipp out of a redshirt season in 1992, as well, to help replace the injured Jodi Hinrichs and Trish Olson. In 16 games as a true freshman, Kipp averaged 10.5 minutes per game behind starting center Jill Frohlich and averaged three points and 2.6 rebounds per game.

High School: Kipp was a four-time team MVP at Browning High School. She led the Indians to an 18-4 record as a senior, averaging 18 points and 13 rebounds per game. Her team won the Northern "A" Conference title in both 1990 and 1991. Kipp was a four-time all-conference and three-time all-state player. She left Browning with 1,435 career points and 1,044 career rebounds. She was also a four-year letter winner in both volleyball and track & field.

Selvig says: "Malia is a young lady who has played both the four and five positions for us. She is a good shooter, and one of her best offensive qualities is her passing. She is a great defender, and we've been able to use her on both large players and quick players. As one of our three seniors, we're looking for good leadership from her. I think Malia is in line to have a great season."

Malia is the daughter of Carl and Dee Ann Kipp. Her father was a standout basketball player at Northern Montana College in Havre.

GRETA KOSS
6-1 JUNIOR GUARD-FORWARD
MALTA, MONTANA

Probably Montana's most versatile player, Greta Koss has played both guard and forward for the Lady Griz. She is a steady performer and will contribute even more as a junior.

1994-95: Greta started all 33 games last season, averaging 7.1 points and 5.1 rebounds per game. She scored in double figures 10 times and picked off 71 steals. Koss was one of nine players named to the Big Sky all-academic team. She was also the recipient of the Theresa Rhoads award, given to the player who best exemplifies Lady Griz basketball.

1993-94: Koss saw time in all 30 games as a freshman, averaging 13 minutes per game. She was Montana's third-best rebounder with 3.9 boards per game. She also averaged 3.6 points and 1.1 steals per game. Koss was the recipient of the Grace Geil Most Improved Player award, and she was one of six Montana players named to the Big Sky all-academic team.

1992-93: Koss redshirted her first season at Montana. She is one of three Malta standouts to become a Lady Griz. Sophomore Skyla Sisco is from Malta, as was Linda Mendel, who played for Montana from 1985-90.

High School: Koss led the Mustangs to a 24-3 record and the state class "B" championship title in 1992, averaging 14.3 points and 7.3 rebounds per game as a senior. She was twice selected her team's Most Valuable Player, and she earned MVP honors at the state tournament. A three-time all-conference and two-time all-state selection, Koss was a Converse All-American. She also participated in the 1991 Montana Girls' All-Star game. In addition, Koss was a three-time all-conference and two-time all-state volleyball player. She earned six varsity letters in both sports.

Selvig says: "Greta has had a great career so far. She is very versatile, and we've used her in many roles. Her versatility is one of her biggest strengths. She can shoot outside and score inside, and she's a great defender. As a coach, it's a luxury to have players like Greta because she can do so many things for you."

Greta is the daughter of Paul and Donna Koss. Her sister, Kerry, played volleyball for Briercrest Bible College and is now attending UM.

APRIL SATHER
6-1 JUNIOR CENTER
HAVRE, MONTANA

April Sather is the first student-athlete to play both basketball and volleyball for The University of Montana. Recruited in high school by both Selvig and Dick Scott, Sather came to UM on a hoops scholarship. She has played both sports for the last two years. She plays both center and forward for Selvig and has played both outside and middle for Scott. Sather is currently practicing with both teams.

1994-95: April saw time in 19 games last year and averaged 1.5 points and 1.5 rebounds per game. She was one of nine UM women's basketball athletes named to the Big Sky all-academic team.

1993-94: Sather played in 14 games as a sophomore. She was one of six Montana basketball players named to the Big Sky all-academic team.

1992-93: Sather redshirted her first year at Montana.

High School: April came from an athletically-talented class out of Havre High School. Two of her 1991 classmates are competing for UM in other sports. Jennifer Patera is the starting setter for the Montana volleyball team, and Brenda Naber is a high jumper for the Lady Griz track & field team.

Sather led the Blue Ponies basketball team to a 16-8 record and a second-place finish at the 1991 state "A" tournament. She was an all-state selection as a senior and a two-time all-conference pick. She averaged 15 points and nine rebounds per game.

In volleyball, she led her team to a 22-2 record and the state title in 1992. She was Havre's MVP that year, as well as a three-time all-conference and two-time all-state player.

Sather also led her track & field team to the state championship title in 1991. She won the discus event as a senior, and she placed in the high jump, triple jump and shot put in both 1990 and 1991. Sather was Havre's Female Athlete of the Year and an academic all-state selection in all three sports.

Selvig says: "April is an athlete who plays both four and five for us. She is a good rebounder and a good shooter, and she is an extremely hard worker. There aren't many athletes who can excel in two sports. She is just a great athlete, who has the ability to play both basketball and volleyball."

April is the daughter of Terry and Kathy Sather. Her cousin, Tyler Edwards, is a hurdler for the Montana track & field team.

ANGELLA BIEBER
6-3 SOPHOMORE CENTER
SPOKANE, WASHINGTON

Angella Bieber will probably see a significant amount of time this season after Montana lost Jodi Hinrichs to graduation. Bieber is a true center who has good post skills, and she will continue to improve with more time and experience.

1994-95: Angella saw time in 32 games last season, averaging 9.6 minutes as a true freshman. Backing up center Hinrichs, she averaged two points and 1.9 rebounds per game. She was the second-best blocker on the team with 28 stuffs. Bieber had her best game of the season against Tennessee, tallying seven points and five rebounds in only nine minutes.

High School: Bieber was a three-year starter for University High School in Spokane. She averaged 13 points, 13 rebounds and eight blocks per game as a senior, while leading the Titans to a 14-12 record last season under the direction of Bob Finn.

Bieber was selected to both the Spokane all-valley team and the Greater Spokane all-league for for the last three years in-a-row. She was also a participant in the Eastern Washington vs. Northern Idaho All-Star game, in which Washington won 76-68.

She was named her team's Most Valuable Player as a senior after leading the Titans to the regional tournament.

Bieber also played middle blocker for her high school volleyball team for two years and was tabbed the Most Improved Player as a junior.

Selvig says: "We're hoping for a lot of good things from Angella this year. She has the tools to become a very good offensive player and definitely has the tools to become a good defensive player. She can change shots, and she's a good shot blocker. With improved strength and experience this year, we're hoping she becomes a very good force in the post."

Angella is the daughter of Dan and Charlene Bieber.

CATIE McELMURRY
5-9 SOPHOMORE GUARD
TROY, MONTANA

Catie McElmurry adds a great shooting touch and depth to Montana's outstanding backcourt. She will continue to improve this season, while playing a back-up role at the two-guard position.

1994-95: McElmurry saw time in 26 games last season as a true freshman, averaging nine minutes per game. She scored in double figures twice, tallying 13 and 15 points against Idaho State. Catie averaged 3.2 points and 1.4 rebounds per game. She was one of a league-high nine players to earn Big Sky all-academic honors.

High School: McElmurry came to Montana from Troy High School, which produced one of the most remarkable three-years stretches in the history of Montana high school athletics. She, along with UM volleyball player Jaime Volkmann, led the Trojans to an unprecedented sweep of the three major girls' sports (basketball, volleyball, track & field) from 1992-94. McElmurry led her basketball team to a 24-0 record and the state class "B" title as a senior in 1993-94, while averaging 18 points, six rebounds, five assists and four steals per game. Her hoop team also won the 1992-93 state title, going undefeated as well. Troy posted a 76-1 record in girls basketball from 1992-94. McElmurry was the 1993-94 Gatorade Player of the Year and the USA Today Player of the Year for the state of Montana. She was also the 1992-93 state "B" tournament MVP and was a three-year all-state and all-tournament pick.

Troy High School won back-to-back volleyball titles in 1993 and '94 and finished second in 1992. McElmurry earned three all-state awards while leading the Trojans to a three-year record of 109-2. She earned all-state honors three times and all-tournament honors four times. McElmurry was also a four-time all-state selection in track, leading the Trojans to the 1993 state track & field title.

McElmurry was the Valedictorian of her class and was an academic all-state selection in every sport in every year.

Selvig says: "Catie is a great shooter, and she has become an outstanding three-point shooter. She played very well toward the end of the season last year. She is improving on defense all the time, and I'm very confident that Catie will play well this year.

Catie is the daughter of Rich and Chris McElmurry. Her brother, Blaine, is a free safety on the Grizzly football team. Both Catie and Blaine graduated from Troy High School with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average.

DAWN SACKMAN
5-10 SOPHOMORE FORWARD
HELMVILLE, MONTANA

*D*awn Sackman is probably one of Montana's strongest athletes, plus she has good speed. She has had to make the transition from playing the post to playing the perimeter, but the adjustment should prove promising for Sackman. During her third year in the program, she is expected to contribute more on the court.

1994-95: Sackman saw time in 24 games last season as a redshirt freshman, averaging 7.7 minutes per game. She picked up averages of 1.8 points and 1.9 rebounds per game and tallied 18 steals on the season.

1993-94: Dawn redshirted her first season as a Lady Griz.

High School: A native of Helmsville, Mont., Sackman led Drummond High School to the 1992 state class "C" title. The Trojans finished the season with a 25-1 record behind Sackman's 21.7 points, 10.4 rebounds, 5.2 steals and 3.1 blocks per game. She was named the state tournament MVP, and she ended her prep career as Drummond's all-time leading scorer with 1,805 points.

Sackman was a three-time all-state and four-time all-conference selection in basketball. She was also a two-time team MVP and the recipient of the 1991 Joe Rainey award, given annually to the top female athlete at Drummond High School.

In addition to her basketball accolades, Sackman also earned two letters in volleyball and four letters in track & field. She was the Trojan volleyball MVP in 1992, earning all-conference and all-state honors that same year. She was a four-time MVP in track & field, plus she earned all-state and all-conference honors in the long jump, 300m hurdles, 400m and relay events.

Sackman graduated from Drummond High School with a 3.2 grade-point average.

Selvig Says: "Dawn is very athletic and very strong. She is currently making the transition from playing the inside to playing the perimeter, and that has been quite an adjustment for her. She is playing very well right now, and she is as active as any player we've had. She is playing the three position, and her skills are improving daily. Dawn should definitely be a big contributor this year."

Dawn is the daughter of Robert and JoAnn Sackman.

SKYLA SISCO
5-7 SOPHOMORE GUARD
MALTA, MONTANA

Skyla Sisco is a crowd favorite at Montana and plays with a style comparable to no other. She is expected to run the Lady Griz offense this year as UM's truest point guard.

Sisco was selected to compete in the U.S. Olympic Festival last summer, representing the West team in the Denver tournament. She started one of four games and tallied 12 points, seven rebounds, and four assists.

1994-95: Sisco became the first freshman to earn Big Sky all-conference first team honors last season, plus she was the first Big Sky Outstanding Sixth Player award winner. Skyla started once and saw time in all 33 games. She averaged 9.3 points and 3.3 assists per game. She scored back-to-back career highs of 18 and 22 points midseason and scored in double figures 17 times. Sisco was the recipient of the Grace Geil Most Improved Player award, plus she was one of nine players named to the Big Sky all-academic team.

1993-94: Sisco redshirted her first year at Montana.

High School: Sisco was one of the best prep guards in the state, hailing from Malta, which has produced three Lady Griz players: Sisco, Greta Koss and Linda Mendel (1985-90).

Sisco is the all-time leading scorer at Malta High School with 1,283 career points. She led the Mustangs to a 26-1 record and a second-place finish at the 1992 state "B" tournament, averaging 15 points, five rebounds and four assists per game. A three-time all-conference and all-state selection, Sisco led her 1991 team to a 24-3 record and the state title. In addition, she was a two-time state tournament MVP and a National High School Association All-American. She was also named to the BCI (Basketball Congress International) All-American team in 1992.

Sisco was a two-time all-conference and an all-state pick in volleyball. In track & field, she was a four-time all-state selection and three times she won the state "B" high jump. Sisco was twice named MVP of her track team. She earned a total of 11 varsity letters in high school. A standout in the classroom, Sisco was also a four-time academic all-state pick.

Selvig says: "Skyla has great quickness and floor sense, and she should become a good leader at the point guard position for us. I was very impressed with her defense last year. She worked very hard and improved a ton in that area. She just has all the tools and attributes to be an outstanding point guard at the Division I level. She is on her way there."

Skyla is the daughter of Dan and Marla Sisco.

ALLISON TURNER
6-1 SOPHOMORE FORWARD
WALLA WALLA, WASHINGTON

Allison Turner is a true forward with good shooting skills and the potential to be a great defender. She is expected to assume more responsibility this year.

1994-95: Allison saw time in 25 games as a true freshman last year. She averaged 2.6 points and 2.2 rebounds in just under 10 minutes per game. In her first game as a Lady Griz, Turner pulled down a career-high seven rebounds in Montana's 89-49 loss to Duke. She was one of nine athletes named to the Big Sky all-academic team.

High School: Turner left Walla Walla High School as the all-time leading rebounder (696 rebounds) and the second all-time leading scorer (1,006 points).

As a senior, she led the Blue Devils to a 16-8 record and a third-place finish in the Big Nine Conference, averaging 17.8 points and nine rebounds per game. Turner was her team's Most Valuable Player and twice earned Big Nine all-conference honors. She led the league in scoring for two consecutive years, as she averaged 16 points and nine rebounds per game as a junior. At the conclusion of her junior season, Turner was named the Big Nine Player of the Year.

A four-year starter for the Blue Devils, Turner led her team to a third-place finish at the BCI (Basketball Congress International) Camp in Tucson, Ariz., during the summer of 1992. She also competed in the "Best of the West" camp in Oregon City, Ore., during the summer of 1994 and earned All-Star honors.

Turner competed for the Blue Devil volleyball team as a junior and was the Most Improved Player that year. She lettered twice in cross country, and she earned three letters in track & field. Turner was a two-time all-conference selection and a two-time participant in the Washington state meet. She was a member of the mile relay team, which set a new school record her senior season.

Selvig says: "Allison is very athletic. She runs very well and is a good shooter. She has the athletic ability to be a great defender. She is one of our young players we look forward to stepping up and assuming a bigger role this year."

Allison is the daughter of Jerry and Gail Turner. Her father was a starting tight end for Western Washington University in 1967 and was also a pitcher on the Viking baseball team.

MEGAN HARRINGTON
5-8 FRESHMAN GUARD
MISSOULA, MONTANA

Megan Harrington comes to The University of Montana from Hellgate High School in Missoula, where she was a standout point guard for the Knights. The last Lady Griz player that came from Hellgate was Jill Frohlich. Harrington will contribute depth and talent to the guard position.

High School: Harrington led the Knights to a 20-1 record and the state "AA" title in 1994-95 under the direction of prep coach Wayne Beddow. Hellgate's only loss was an overtime affair at Big Sky. Harrington was named the Montana state "AA" tournament MVP after averaging 17.2 points per game, the best in the Western "AA" conference. She also averaged 3.5 assists and 4.7 steals per game and hit 53 percent from the field. She was a three-time all-conference and two-time all-state selection and was twice chosen the Knight MVP. Harrington led Hellgate to a 12-7 record and a third-place finish in the Western Division as a junior. As a sophomore, her team posted an 18-5 record and finished second at state. Harrington finished her career sixth in Hellgate career scoring (740 points) and third in assists (206), and she is the all-time steal leader for the Knights with 268 career steals.

Harrington was also a standout volleyball player. Her team posted a 15-9 record and finished fifth at the state tournament. Megan was the Outstanding Defensive Player and the Most Inspirational as a senior. During her junior year she was named team MVP, and as a sophomore her team won the state "AA" title. Harrington also lettered in tennis and led her team to a fifth-place finish at state.

Selvig Says: "Megan has great athletic ability, and she is a quick, tenacious player, who plays the game extremely hard. She should become a great defender because she is very aggressive. Offensively, she is very creative and someone who will make things happen. Megan has a very bright future."

Megan is the daughter of Vince and Nancy Harrington of Missoula.

JILL RASMUSSEN
5-6 FRESHMAN GUARD
MISSOULA, MONTANA

Jill Rasmussen is another local standout, hailing from Sentinel High School. The last Lady Griz to come to UM from Sentinel was Sharla Muralt. Rasmussen has had a year to learn Selvig's offense, and she has become a stronger, better player. She provides even more depth at the guard position.

1994-95: Rasmussen redshirted her first season with the Lady Griz.

High School: Rasmussen led the Spartans to an undefeated 23-0 record and the 1993-94 state "AA" title, averaging 12.1 points, 4.2 rebounds, 5.3 assists and 3.7 steals per game. Rasmussen was a three-time MVP, all-conference and all-state selection for the Spartans, under the direction of Pete Hasquet. She was also a three-time state "AA" all-tournament selection.

Rasmussen left Sentinel as the school's third all-time leading scorer with 1,009 points behind Karen Deden and Heidi Harris. She also holds the all-time assist record with 380 career assists.

A multi-sport standout, Rasmussen earned three varsity letters in volleyball under the direction of Deb (Carter) Thompson, playing both hitter and setter during her career. She earned team MVP honors as a senior, all-state honors as a junior, and she was a two-time all-conference pick. She also earned two varsity letters in track & field.

Rasmussen was a nine-time academic all-state selection, graduating with a 3.95 grade-point average. She was the Student Body President, the Senior of the Year and the Female Athlete of the Year in 1993-94.

Selvig says: "Jill has made great strides in the last year. She is shooting the ball extremely well right now. Her shooting is her biggest strength, and she is improving in other areas all the time. She could play both the one and two positions before her career is over."

Jill is the daughter of Stan and Catherine Rasmussen.

KRISTA REDPATH
6-1 FRESHMAN FORWARD
GREAT FALLS, MONTANA

Krista Redpath hails from Great Falls High School, which also produced Natalie Streeter-Chamberlain. Redpath brings Montana much-needed depth inside and good shooting ability.

High School: Redpath averaged 22 points and 15 rebounds per game, while leading the Bison to the state "AA" tournament despite a 10-11 record. She was the Gatorade Player of the Year for the state of Montana, and she was the recipient of the Air Force Athlete of the Year award. Krista was a three-time all-conference selection and two-time all-state selection. She was the Bison MVP in both her junior and senior seasons. As a junior she led Great Falls High to an 8-13 record, averaging 14 points and eight rebounds per game.

Krista's prep coach was Kathleen Howard, who also coached Malia Kipp at Browning High School and Angella Bieber at University High School in Spokane.

In addition to her basketball abilities, Redpath was a three-year letter winner in volleyball, under the direction of Hank Anderson. She earned all-conference honors as a senior at the middle blocker position.

Krista also excelled in the classroom, earning academic all-state honors six times during her career, and she was a member of Honor Society.

Selvig Says: "Krista has a lot of talent. She runs the floor extremely well for her size, and she has great hands. She has all the tools and the attitude to become a great player. She can shoot the ball both inside and from the perimeter."

Krista is the daughter of Mike and Lynn Redpath of Great Falls. She and Grizzly punter Dallas Neil graduated in the same class.

MEGGAN THOMPSON
5-6 FRESHMAN GUARD
LARAMIE, WYOMING

Meggan Thompson hails from Laramie High School and is only the second UM recruit from the state of Wyoming, as Shelli Sniffin came from Lander, Wyo. Thompson has great point guard skills and plays good defense. She is also a quick learner and will give Montana more depth in the backcourt.

High School: Thompson led Laramie High to a 19-4 record and a third-place finish at the 1995 state "4A" tournament, averaging 10.6 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 2.9 steals per game. She was a preseason Street & Smith's All-American prior to her senior season. Thompson was a three-time all-conference and all-state selection and was the Southern Wyoming Athletic Conference MVP as a junior. She led her 1994 team to a 21-2 record and a second-place finish at state. Her prep coach was Paul Street.

Thompson was also an outstanding soccer player, earning four letters at the midfielder position. She led the Lady Plainsmen to the state tournament as the leading scorer. She was a two-time all-conference selection and was an all-state pick as a senior.

An outstanding student, Thompson earned academic all-state honors six times in her career. She was also an Honor Society member and the senior class representative to the student council.

Selvig Says: "What I like most about Meggan is that she has tremendous basketball savvy. She has great lead guard skills already, and she has that intangible that is hard to teach. Meg can really pass the ball well, and she makes the passes at the right time. Another good thing about her is that she is a quick learner."

Meggan is the daughter of Jim and Nancy Thompson of Laramie. Her brother, Garth, is currently studying in Australia.

BILLINGS, MONTANA

Linda Weyler hails from Billings Senior High School and is only the second Lady Griz player to come from Billings. Shannon Cate was the last prep player from the Magic City. Weyler gives Montana much-needed depth inside and comes in with good strength and rebounding ability.

High School: Weyler led Billings Senior to a 20-2 record and a third-place finish at the state "AA" tournament. Senior's two losses were each one-point games. Linda averaged 12.3 points and 7.3 rebounds as a senior. She was a three-time all-conference and two-time all-state selection for the Broncos. As a junior, Weyler's team posted a 9-11 record. Her prep coach was Larry Tocci, who also coached Shannon Cate at Billings Central.

A three-sport standout, Weyler also excelled in both volleyball and track & field. As a middle blocker, Linda led the Bronco volleyball team to a 21-6 record and a second-place finish at the state tournament in 1994-95. In her junior year, Senior took home a third-place state trophy. Weyler was a two-time all-conference selection and an all-state pick as a senior. In track & field, Weyler won the Montana state "AA" title in the discus as a junior and finished sixth in the shot put that same year. As a senior she finished second in the shot put. She was a two-time all-conference and all-state selection. Linda was the recipient of the Mindland Roundtable Award, given to the female student-athlete of the year at Billings Senior. She was recruited for both basketball and volleyball.

Selvig Says: "I have been very impressed with Linda so far this season. She is extremely strong and has good quickness. She will be a great rebounder and has the ability to shoot the ball from the perimeter, as well as score inside. I'm very pleased with her basketball abilities."

Linda is the daughter of Hilmer and Nita Weyler of Billings. Her older sister, Karen, is a starting middle blocker for the Montana State volleyball team.

Lady Griz Post 15th Consecutive 20-Win Season

Lora Morast

The Montana Lady Griz picked up their 15th consecutive 20-win season last year, and head coach Robin Selvig reached the 400-win plateau along the way. It was one of Montana's best seasons, despite playing its toughest schedule ever.

Selvig's team won its 11th Big Sky regular-season title and 10th Big Sky Championship title in 13 years, and Montana advanced to the NCAA tournament for the 10th time in 13 years.

The season began with the inaugural pre-season Women's National Invitation Tournament. Montana defeated Oklahoma 76-64, then nearly upset No. 12 Vanderbilt, but lost 69-65 in the final minutes after leading nearly the entire game.

Two of Montana's guards went down early in that game. Senior Carla Beattie ruptured an Achilles tendon and missed the rest of the season. Freshman Skyla Sisco went down with a sprained ankle but returned to action the following weekend.

Montana's loss to Vanderbilt broke a 34-game home winning streak for the Lady Griz, which dated back to February 1992. It was the third best streak in Division I women's basketball.

After the NIT, the Lady Griz went to Norfolk, Vir., where Montana suffered its worst loss of the season there, as Duke surprised the Lady Griz 89-49. After the upset, Montana defeated Syracuse 76-55, and senior Kristy Langton-Schlimgen was named to the all-tournament team.

Montana travelled to San Marcos, Texas the following weekend and won the Southwest Texas State Classic with wins over UTEP and SWT. Langton-Schlimgen was tabbed the tournament MVP, and junior Sherri Brooks joined her on the all-tournament team.

The Lady Griz picked up a home win over MSU-Billings in preparation for the biggest game of the season. No. 1 Tennessee paid a visit to Missoula and dodged the bullet, returning to Knoxville with a 66-61 victory. A season-high 8,371 fans watched Montana hold the Lady Vols to 35 percent shooting from the field. Montana had more assists, more steals, more blocked shots and fewer turnovers than Tennessee did, but the SEC power out-rebounded the Lady Griz 47-35.

Following the Tennessee loss, Montana defeated Nevada then returned home to win its 13th consecutive Western States Showdown title. The Lady Griz handily defeated Cal Poly-SLO and Illinois State, as Sherri Brooks, Kristy Langton-Schlimgen and Jodi Hinrichs earned all-tournament honors. Brooks was tabbed the MVP of the Showdown.

Montana began 1995 with a win over Gonzaga, as senior Lora Morast made a remarkable comeback. Morast missed 12 games after chipping a bone in her neck during the Portland AAU exhibition game. Doctors decided to forego surgery, and Morast spent six weeks in a neck brace. In her return she had 10 points and five rebounds in only 14 minutes of action.

The following game saw the Lady Griz suffer a 26-point loss to Utah on the road, as the Utes out-rebounded Montana 47-25. Despite the loss, Brooks tallied a school-record 10 steals.

Montana opened Big Sky action at home, sweeping both NAU and Weber State by a combined 64 points. Skyla Sisco came out cooking, scoring a career-high 18 points vs. NAU and a career-high 22 points against Weber. It was the best back-to-back performance by any UM freshman.

After a non-conference home win over Southern Utah, Montana went on the road for three consecutive league games. The Lady Griz blew out Montana State 67-48 behind a career-high 18 points from Brooks. That win broke a four-game losing streak in Bozeman for the Lady Griz.

The following weekend Montana lost to Boise State 64-61 on the road. However, senior Kristy Langton-Schlimgen scored her 1,000th career point in that game.

Montana came out swinging against Idaho State the following night, winning 80-48 in Pocatello.

In back-to-back wins over Idaho and Eastern Washington, the Lady Griz drew a combined 12,764 fans for both games, setting a new attendance mark for consecutive league games.

Selvig's 400th career victory came on the road in Ogden, Utah, in a 75-57 Montana win over Weber State. Selvig became only the 20th coach in Division I women's basketball to surpass 400 wins.

Montana then defeated NAU 68-49 behind a career-high 28-point performance from Hinrichs. She scored her 1,000th point in that game.

The Lady Griz returned home to pick up three consecutive wins over Montana State, Idaho State and Boise State.

Montana wrapped up the regular-season schedule on the road, and Eastern Washington upset the Lady Griz 62-59 in Cheney. That win advanced Eastern Washington into the Big Sky tournament for the first time since 1990.

With a 12-2 league record, the Lady Griz won the Big Sky regular-season title outright, giving Montana the Big Sky tournament for the 10th time in 13 years. The Lady Griz swept through the tournament with ease, downing Eastern Washington 72-45 and Montana State 75-57. Kristy Langton-Schlimgen was tabbed the tournament MVP, and Jodi Hinrichs also earned all-tournament honors.

Montana's 10th Big Sky title gave the Lady Griz their 10th bid to the NCAA Championship. Seeded 12th in the West Region, the team was rewarded with a trip to San Diego for Spring Break.

Montana opened against No. 23 San Diego State, who won the WAC title with a win over Utah. The Lady Griz led the Aztecs in all but 17 seconds of that game and walked away with a 57-46 victory.

Two nights later Montana challenged No. 14 Purdue, but the Boilermakers proved to be too much for the Lady Griz, winning 62-51. Kristy Langton-Schlimgen tore her ACL in the second half of that game and was required to have surgery.

"Certainly going to the NCAAs and winning a road game against a ranked team was the biggest highlight of the year," said Selvig, who ended his 17th season at Montana with a 408-100 record.

In addition, Selvig was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year for the 11th time in his career.

"Getting to the NCAAs is very thrilling, and it was great for this team to get there," he said. "I felt that if we could advance to the NCAAs, we had a team that could do some damage. Then we played a Purdue team that was very tough."

"But in the overall outlook of the season, I believe it was one of the most exciting seasons we've ever had," he said. "We played in the first-ever preseason NIT. We played two of the absolute best teams in the country down to the wire at home. We prevailed through some stretches of more injuries than you ever want to have."

"Beginning with the NIT and ending with the NCAAs, it was just a very event-filled season, one that ended up being as good as any other year we've ever had."

Montana ended the season with a 26-7 record and posted a 16-2 record at home, losing only to top-ranked Tennessee and Vanderbilt. UM's 18 home games tied the season high, established in 1987-88. Montana also played more games (33) in 1994-95 than in any other season.

The Lady Griz led the nation in scoring defense (54.2 ppg) and were ranked sixth in field-goal percentage defense (.273).

Montana again broke the season attendance record, tallying an average of 5,235 and finishing eighth in the second annual Women's Basketball Attendance Challenge.

"The attendance increase is one of the many things about last year that was great," Selvig said.

Four Montana players were named to the Big Sky all-conference first team: seniors Kristy Langton-Schlimgen and Jodi Hinrichs, junior Sherri Brooks and freshman Skyla Sisco, who was also the winner of the league's first Outstanding Sixth Player award.

"I think last year's team probably exceeded most people's expectations," Selvig said. "There were a lot of questions at the beginning of the season. The key for us was having people step forward and playing well. We had players who did just that. I believe this team certainly achieved its potential."

Kristy Langton-Schlimgen

1994-95 Season Highlights

- Recorded a 15th consecutive 20-win season with a 27-6 record.
- Won a 10th Big Sky Conference title with a 12-2 league record.
- Named Big Sky Champions for the 10th time in 13 years.
- Robin Selvig recorded his 400th career victory in a 75-57 win at Weber State, becoming only the 20th coach in Division I women's basketball to accomplish that feat.
- Advanced to the NCAA Championship for the 10th time in 13 years and made its seventh appearance in the second round.
- Set a new season attendance record for the second year in-a-row, averaging 5,235 fans per home game.
- Placed eighth in the second annual National Women's Basketball Attendance Challenge.
- Invited to compete in the inaugural Preseason Women's National Invitation Tournament: defeated Oklahoma 76-64 at home, then hosted No. 12 Vanderbilt in Dahlberg Arena.
- Received a medical redshirt year for starting senior guard Carla Beattie, who tore her Achilles' tendon in the Vanderbilt game.
- Nearly upset Tennessee, the top-ranked team in the country, 66-61 in front of 8,371 fans in Dahlberg Arena.
- Kristy Langton-Schlimgen named MVP and Sherri Brooks named to the all-tournament team of the Southwest Texas State Classic.
- Led the nation in scoring defense, holding opponents to 54.2 points per game; Also ranked seventh in field-goal percentage defense (.353), 15th in scoring margin (+16.5 ppg) and 22nd in won-lost percentage (.788).
- Sherri Brooks ranked 26th in the country in steals per game, averaging 3.48 per game.

Dahlberg Arena – “Home of the Lady Griz”

The Lady Griz have found tremendous success in the confines of Dahlberg Arena, which was named after the great George “Jiggs” Dahlberg, who was an athlete, a coach and an athletic director at The University of Montana. Dahlberg earned six varsity letters at UM in football and basketball in the early 1920s. He was the Grizzly basketball coach for 22 years (1937-54) and then became athletic director (1954-70). Jiggs passed away in September of 1993, just two weeks after he was inducted into the Grizzly Sports Hall of Fame. He will be remembered for his success at The University of Montana, and the Lady Griz basketball team will continue to carry on that tradition. Over the last 17 years, the Lady Griz have posted a 239-20 record in Dahlberg Arena for a .923 winning percentage.

MONTANA & THE NATIONAL ATTENDANCE CHALLENGE

The Lady Griz competed in the second annual National Women's Basketball Attendance Challenge in 1994-95 and finished in eighth place ahead of Colorado and Vanderbilt. Montana fans came out to support the Lady Griz throughout an 18-game home schedule that featured nationally-ranked teams Vanderbilt and Tennessee.

For the second year in-a-row, Montana broke its own school-record and averaged over 5,000 fans per home game. The Lady Griz would like to extend a special thank you to everyone who has supported women's basketball at Montana throughout the last eight years, giving UM a top 10 national ranking in each of those years.

Results of the 1994-95 Women's Basketball Attendance Challenge follow:

Team	Attendance	Team	Attendance
1. Tennessee	10,059	6. Ohio State	6,332
2. Texas	7,973	7. Iowa	6,235
3. Connecticut	7,901	8. Montana	5,235
4. Texas Tech	7,226	9. Colorado	4,747

Big Sky Conference

The Big Sky Conference is starting its 33rd season of operation with championships being conducted in 13 sports including men's and women's cross country, basketball, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, women's volleyball, women's golf, and football. The Big Sky has eight member institutions and is affiliated with NCAA Division I in all sports except football, which is classified as Division I-AA.

The 1995-96 athletic season is the eighth in which the league will sponsor championship competition in women's sports. On July 1, 1988, the Mountain West Athletic Conference, located in Cheney, Washington, merged with the Big Sky, moving and combining office staffs in Boise, Idaho. The Mountain West Conference had been in existence since 1982.

The Big Sky Conference consists of Boise State University, Boise, Idaho; Eastern Washington University, Cheney, Washington; University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho; Idaho State University, Pocatello, Idaho; University of Montana, Missoula, Montana; Montana State University, Bozeman, Montana; Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Arizona; and Weber State University, Ogden, Utah. Formed in 1963, the Big Sky Conference consisted of charter members Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga University, Montana, Montana State and Weber State.

Boise State and Northern Arizona joined the league July 1, 1970, in the Big Sky's first expansion. Nevada was admitted to the league July 1, 1979, replacing former charter member Gonzaga (Nevada left the Big Sky on July 1, 1992). On July 1, 1987, Eastern Washington became the Big Sky's ninth member. When all nine members of the Mountain West Conference and Big Sky Conference were parallel, the way was paved to merge the two leagues.

The Big Sky Conference has member institutions in five states and covers more than 220,000 square miles (or almost 1/12th the total square miles in the continental United States). The five states included in the Big Sky Conference (Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Washington) span from the Canadian to the Mexican borders. The Big Sky is one of two major conferences located in the Rocky Mountain region.

The name BIG SKY originated in a novel authored in 1947, by the late A. B. (Bud) Guthrie, of Great Falls, Montana, entitled THE BIG SKY. Jack Hollowell, former Montana Advertising Director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. Harry Missildine, of the Spokane SPOKESMAN-REVIEW, called for the conference to be named "The Big Sky Conference" in his column of February 20, 1963. On February 25, 1963, the conference name was adopted by the presidents of the newly formed league during a meeting in Spokane, Washington.

Doug Fullerton is the new Conference Commissioner, taking over the post July 1, 1995. He replaces Ron Stephenson, who served as Commissioner from 1981-95. Steve Belko served from 1977-81, and John Roning was the league's second Commissioner, serving from 1971 until 1977. Jack Freil was the Big Sky's first Commissioner, serving from 1963 to 1971.

Kathy Noble is the new Assistant Commissioner for Compliance Services of the Big Sky Conference, replacing Sharon Holmberg, who served for eight years.

Ron Loghry is in his first year as the Big Sky's Assistant Commissioner for Information Services. He replaces Arnie Sgalio, who served in that post for 17 years.

Tricia Harris serves as the assistant director of information services, and Lori Napier and Krista Wickens will be the Big Sky's interns for the 1995-96 season.

Art Mendini is in his eighth year with the Big Sky as the league's Assistant Commissioner for Officiating Services.

Next year three new schools will join the Big Sky Conference: Portland State, Cal State-Northridge and Cal State-Sacramento.

The Big Sky Conference office recently moved from Boise, Idaho to Ogden, Utah. The phone number there is (801) 392-1978, and the fax number is (801) 392-5568.

NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship

1997 NCAA Division I West Regional Championship

The University of Montana has been selected to host the 1997 NCAA Division I West Regional Championship. The tournament will be held in Dahlberg Arena March 22-24, 1997 with first-round games scheduled to be played on Saturday, March 22 and the final on Monday, March 24. South Carolina will host the East Regional, Purdue will host the Mideast Regional, and Iowa will host the Midwest Regional. Xavier will host the 1997 Final Four March 28-30 at Riverfront Coliseum in Cincinnati.

Montana hosted the 1993 NCAA West Regional, the biggest basketball event to ever be held in the state of Montana.

NCAA Champion Texas Tech and

Player of the Year Sheryl Swoopes swept the competition. Colorado, Stanford, and Southern Cal were also in Missoula. It was the highest attended women's basketball regional tournament ever for a neutral site, as a combined 19,643 made the event a huge success.

Tickets for the 1997 Regional will go on sale in May of 1996 and can be purchased at the UM Field House Ticket Office. Phone orders can be placed by calling (406) 243-4051 or 1-800-526-3400.

BRIAN PRAWITZ — "VOICE OF THE LADY GRIZ"

Brian Prawitz begins his first season as the Lady Griz play-by-play announcer. He replaces Andy Baskin, who recently took a new television position in Ohio.

Prawitz comes to Missoula from Roseburg, Ore., where he spent two years calling the play-by-play for high school football, basketball and American Legion baseball. While there, he served as the News and Sports Director for two radio stations.

Before moving to Roseburg, Prawitz was involved with football and basketball broadcasts for Ashland High School for two seasons.

Brian received his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from Southern Oregon State College in Ashland in 1993. He was named the Senior Broadcaster of the Year at Southern Oregon State that same year. Prawitz also won two Associated Press awards for excellence in sports announcing.

Prawitz is serving as the News and Sports Director for Western Montana Broadcasting.

A native of Puyallup, Wash., Brian and his wife, Jannie have one daughter, Tori.

KGVO Radio is in its 11th season of broadcasting Lady Griz games. All home and away games can be heard live on KGVO-AM 1290.

Background photo: Main Hall on the UM campus provides a fitting backdrop for students holding class on the "Oval." Inset photos clockwise from the right: UM's beauty is enhanced by the fact that Glacier National Park is within 3 hours distance from campus. The park abounds in wildlife and spectacular scenery. The campus is nestled in the town of Missoula. This diverse community of over 80,000 is at the hub of five valleys.

THE PHOTO ABOVE is the Montana-Montana State game in February of 1988 when a record high 9,258 fans came to watch the intra-state rivalry in Dahlberg Arena. Montana and MSU were the only undefeated teams in Division I at the time. The Lady Griz won that game 67-59 as Lisa McLeod scored 18 points. Dahlberg Arena will be the site of the 1997 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball West Regional tournament. This photo was provided by Geoffrey Sutton.

Ranking The University of Montana Lady Griz were ranked in the Associated Press Poll for 12 consecutive weeks throughout the 1993-94 season, and Montana was ranked as high as 13th during the 1987-88 season. Last year the Lady Griz ended the season ranked 25th in the USA Today poll.

Postseason The Lady Griz have participated in postseason tournaments the last 17 years in-a-row, including 10 NCAA tournaments. Last year Montana made its seventh appearance in the second round of the NAAs by downing San Diego State 57-46.

Attendance For seven of the last eight years, the Lady Griz have been ranked among the Top 10 programs in the nation in Division I attendance. Last year Montana averaged a school-record 5,235 fans per home game, good for a 10th-place ranking in Division I. Montana also finished eighth in the National Women's Basketball Attendance Challenge.

20-Win Seasons The Lady Griz have one of the Top 5 winningest programs in the country. Montana has won at least 20 games in each of the last 15 consecutive seasons and posted a record of 254-49 (.838) during the 1980s. Montana is 123-28 (.815) in the 1990s.

Head Coach Robin Selvig

Robin Selvig has the fourth-best winning percentage in the history of women's basketball (.803). The former Grizzly standout has a school record of 408 victories, and his 17-year overall record at Montana is 408-100. His teams have won regular-season league titles in 11 of the past 13 years. Selvig has earned 19 Coach of the Year awards from the conference and the district.
